IT'S A PROBLEM...

Finding competent staff to help run your business the way you want it run can be a problem. Advertising for help, interviewing the many candidates, worrying about turn-over—all these can be time-consuming and costly.

Every year, more and more employers are finding the way to take the sting out of this problem. They're doing their hiring through the free, country-wide placement service that only the National Employment Service can offer.

Every year, more than a million placements in every type of occupation are made by NES. This vast experience in meeting the requirements of every kind of employer—from the smallest to the largest—is your guarantee of satisfaction.

To serve resort operators, NES has many qualified workers registered for the various jobs in resorts. In addition, there are University and High School students seeking temporary or seasonal employment during their summer vacation.

Your local National Employment Office has workers available now for employment in the following occupations:

cooks, waiters, waitresses, bus boys, hostesses, cabin girls, chamber maids, kitchen help, dietitians, nurses, life guards, waterfront supervisors, counsellors, grounds keepers, maintenance men

Your local National Employment Office will refer well-qualified applicants to your place of business for an interview, or, we will make the arrangements for you to interview them, in private, in our office.

Remember, NES pre-screens the many applicants for your job. You, the employer, make the final selection from among those best qualified.

Avail yourself of this confidential, efficient placement service. Phone, write or visit your local National Employment Office today.
